4-H Rules

1. All exhibitors are required to read and abide by the Georgia National Fair General Rules. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS, YOU MAY CERTAINLY CONTACT THE CONTEST COORDINATOR, OR EMAIL US AT CONTESTS@GNFA.COM. PLEASE HELP US PREVENT ENTRY DISQUALIFICATIONS.
2. Participation in this department is limited to bona fide Georgia 4-H members except where stated otherwise. To become bona fide 4-H'er as defined in the 4-H eligibility guidelines: Any youth residing in or attending school in Georgia may enroll in Georgia 4-H after he or she has reached the age of nine or has begun the fall semester of the fifth grade, whichever comes first. Youth may remain members of 4-H providing their nineteenth (19th) birthday has not passed by January 1 of the current year (2017). Youth who have not graduated from high school, or youth with special education needs who are older than nineteen, may enroll in 4-H with the approval of the State 4-H Leader. Students must be certified to be a 4-H member by their County Extension Agent. A student must be enrolled in 4-H in order to carry out a project and/or other related competitive activities in 4-H.
3. Online registration is required for all entries. Exhibitors will be required to turn in a copy of their online registration confirmation to check-in for competitions.
4. Entries are to be made in the name of the 4-H participant. Teams should be entered as such online and both participants' names should be listed. All entries should be the work of the participating 4-H'er(s)
5. With the exception of Variety Show, all team entries are limited to a two person team. Variety show teams must consist of members in the same Division; the Division of any other team entry will be determined by the highest grade level of participating team members.
6. Exhibitors should refer to each individual section for limits on number of entries and other pertinent information relative to the project being exhibited.
7. Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining permission to use any trademarked or copyrighted symbols, logos, characters, etc. The use of the 4-H Emblem is allowed. Originality is highly encouraged.
8. A label must be firmly attached to each exhibit with the 4-H member's name, grade, county, and division and class number in which the item is to be exhibited.
9. Static exhibits must be in place and ready for judging by Saturday, Sept. 30, at 3:00 P.M.
10. 4-H exhibits at the Georgia National Fair are entered and displayed at the risk of the exhibitor. The Georgia National Fair accepts exhibits and will exercise due care to protect them. However, neither the Georgia National Fair nor Georgia 4-H can accept responsibility for loss or damage to any exhibit.
11. If exhibits are removed early, prize money will be forfeited and exhibitor may be banned from further competitions at the Georgia National Fair.
12. Competitions requiring the presence of 4-H'ers have varying entry times. Please check each division to be sure of times. Please be aware that if a 4-H'er signs up for two conflicting contests, the 4-H'er may be asked to choose between the two at contest time.
13. For live contests only, the participating 4-H'er and 2 family members over the age of 10 will be allowed free entry into the Fair through any TICKET GATE. Any other family members over the age of 10 will be required to purchase tickets for entry. Tickets will not be available for sale at the MMH Building entrance. You will be sent to a ticket gate to purchase tickets. There will be no entry at the McGill service gate (between MMH and Heritage Hall).

CONTEST RULES:

- All exhibitors are required to read and abide by the Georgia National Fair General Rules and Regulations. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES. If you have questions, you may certainly contact the contest coordinator or e-mail us at contests@gnfa.com. Please help us prevent entry disqualifications.
- For this contest, the participating 4-H'er and 2 family members over the age of 10 will be allowed free entry into the Fair through any TICKET GATE. Any other family members over the age of 10 will be required to purchase tickets for entry. Tickets will not be available for sale at the MMH Building entrance. You will be sent to a ticket gate to purchase tickets. There will be no entry at the McGill service gate (between MMH and Heritage Hall).
- This is a family competition. 4-H'er plus two family members may help create their winning scarecrow. The two family members rule will be enforced. 4-H'er must be actively involved in creating the scarecrow. Only one scarecrow per entry; NO multiples.
- The entry must be freestanding. The Georgia National Fair will furnish each 4-H'er with a freestanding "T" form, made of 2" x 2" lumber that is approximately 5 feet in height, with an arm width of 36 inches. Scarecrows must be assembled during contest on "T" form provided. The Georgia National Fair will furnish hay for stuffing the scarecrow. Some assembly may be done ahead of time (i.e. decorating scarecrow's head), but "T" form must be used as the skeleton of the scarecrow's body. Points will be deducted for pre-made forms simply attached to the frame.

5. Old clothes may be used, but purchased Halloween “costumes” are prohibited.
6. Scarecrows should be lovable, mischievous, and humorous - not frightening.
7. Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining permission to use any trademarked or copyrighted symbols, logos, characters, etc. The use of the 4-H Emblem is allowed. Originality is highly encouraged.
8. No electricity will be available. Use of battery operated screw guns is allowed for dismantling/ reattaching of frame.
9. No glue guns allowed on site. Nothing may be permanently attached to the scarecrow frame. No permanent modifications may be made to the scarecrow frame (no glue, paint, carving of frame, etc.).
10. Due to required relocation of scarecrows, the amount of decorative items at the base of the scarecrow may not extend beyond the base (approx. 24 x 24 inches). Decorations must not cover pre-drilled holes in bases. Scarecrow should not be wider than 12” either side of the arm supports.
11. No item that can be used as a weapon will be allowed to be used in scarecrow display.
12. Note: On use of plant materials - Dried, non-perishable agricultural products (such as gourds, dried corn, peanuts, etc.) should be used and may be penetrated (with pins, earrings, etc.). Fleshy products (pumpkins, winter type squash, etc.), which may spoil, may not be used. No perishable items may be used as decoration for the exhibit. No artificial products may be used.
13. Keep in mind that scarecrows will be displayed outside and will be accessible by the public for the duration of the Fair. Items used for scarecrow should be weather resistant. The Fair will not be responsible for loss or damage to any items of value used in scarecrow displays.

5. Each round will consist of 20 questions. This will be a double elimination tournament. The final 16 teams will be eliminated to four teams. The two winners from this bracket will compete for first and second place. The two losing teams from this bracket will compete in a consolation round for third and fourth place honors. Please check with your 4-H agent for 2017 Challenge Bowl topics.

6. Due to the length of the Challenge Bowl Competition, there will be a 30 minute "lunch break" from 12:30-1:00 p.m. (approximately) for contestants and volunteers.

4-H FOOD CONTESTS

ONLINE ENTRIES REGISTRATION DEADLINE SEPTEMBER 20

Exhibitors will be required to turn in a copy of their online registration confirmation to check-in for competitions.

CONTEST RULES:

1. All exhibitors are required to read and abide by the Georgia National Fair General Rules and Regulations. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES. If you have questions, you may certainly contact the contest coordinator or e-mail us at contests@gnfa.com. Please help us prevent entry disqualifications.
2. For these contests, the participating 4-H'er and 2 family members over the age of 10 will be allowed free entry into the Fair through any TICKET GATE. Any other family members over the age of 10 will be required to purchase tickets for entry. Tickets will not be available for sale at the MMH Building entrance. You will be sent to a ticket gate to purchase tickets. There will be no entry at the McGill service gate (between MMH and Heritage Hall).
3. Three typed or printed copies of the recipe, each on an 8 1/2 x 11 inch sheet of paper, with the name, address, county, and section entered printed on the back, must be available at the time of the contest. Recipes used in previous Georgia National Fair Competitions may not be entered. All recipes will become property of the Georgia National Fair.
4. Recipes must be submitted in standard format. All ingredients should be listed (including measurements) in the order they will be used in preparation of the dish. Preparation instructions should be listed clearly.
5. 4-H Food Contests, except Pantry Pride are open to individual 4-H'ers or teams of two. Senior Pantry Pride Contest Finals is an invitation only contest and is for individual entrants only.
6. Individual 4-H'ers or teams may enter more than one cooking contest, but only one entry per class is allowed.
7. Remember, individuals should follow proper food safety practices. Hair net must be worn during food preparation; may be worn under hat or visor. Gloves must be worn. No bare hand contact with food.
8. Cloverleaf exemptions - Cloverleaf contests are "no cook" contests. Cloverleafs may not use blades on site (any chopping or slicing must be done ahead of time).
9. Samples may not be shared with the public inside buildings. Participants should clean their area and then take prepared food and supplies outside of the building if they choose to share after the announcement of winners (Fairgrounds will not provide supplies for sampling).
10. Please be aware that if a 4-H'er signs up for two conflicting contests, the 4-H'er may be asked to choose between the two at contest time.

Please visit the following website for additional information:

Tips for Food Contests at the Georgia National Fair

- Exhibitors will be required to turn in a copy of their online registration confirmation to check-in for competitions.
- Read the contest rules and make sure you have everything you need. Look at how the contest is judged. Some contests require a place setting and others do not.
- Practice at home before going to the contest. Practice makes perfect!
- Practice being neat. You may use trays or waxed paper.
- Wash hands and wear gloves when appropriate.
- Wear an apron.
- Wear hair back. Hair must be restrained by cap or visor, or hair net must be worn during food preparation.
- Transport food safely (keep cold items cold).
- You may have some ingredients prepared ahead (pre-chopped, sliced, grated, etc.)
- Don't touch your hair or face while preparing the food.
- Don't touch ready to eat food with bare hands.
- Wipe up spills as they happen.
- Clean up your space when you are finished.
- Take 3 typed or printed copies of the recipe you are entering (8 1/2 x 11 sheet of paper) with name, address and section printed on back.
- Make sure your recipe lists all of your ingredients with measurements and has clear step-by-step instructions.
- For more information on food safety practices, go to:

<http://www.georgia4h.org/public/more/facsprojectsissues/foodlabjudging/default.htm>

Recipe Format Tips

- Type or print legibly. Winning recipes may be used in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.
- List all ingredients in order of use in ingredients list.
- Include container sizes, for example, 16 oz. pkg. or 20 oz. can.
- Use standard abbreviations for measurements.
- Keep directions in paragraph form - not in numbered steps.
- Use names of ingredients in the directions, for example, "Combine flour and sugar." DO NOT use statements like "Combine first three ingredients."
- Include temperatures and cooking, chilling, baking, and/or freezing times.
- Be consistent in the spelling of your name for each recipe you enter (Do not enter some as Joyce B. Jones and some as Joyce Jones or Joy Jones).
- Remember to bring three typed copies of your recipe on 8 1/2 x 11 paper.
- Make sure your name, address, county, telephone number, and the name of the contest are printed clearly on the back of each recipe.
- No copyrighted recipes allowed.

Examples of standard abbreviations:

pt. = pint
qt. = quart
pkg. = package
env. = envelope
c. = cup
ctn. = carton
tsp. = teaspoon
T. = tablespoon
oz. = ounce
lb. = pound
gal. = gallon
doz. = dozen
sm. = small
md. = medium
lg. = large

PANTRY PRIDE RECIPE CONTEST SENIOR FINALS

Cheryl Varnadoe, Coordinator
706-542-4444
cv4H@uga.edu

THIS IS AN INDIVIDUAL EVENT AND SHOULD BE ENTERED IN THE INDIVIDUAL'S NAME (ex. Bobby Smith).

ATTN 4-H STAFF: You must pre-register participants with the State 4-H office using their official entry form and also on the Georgia National Fair online registration site.

Deadline for GNF registration September 20, 2017

WHEN: Sunday, October 8

CHECK-IN AND SETUP: 9:00 a.m.

WHERE: Heritage Hall

DIVISION 12104 - PANTRY PRIDE FINALISTS - SENIOR

A copy of the online registration confirmation will be required to check-in for competition.

Contest Goals

1. To raise awareness among 4-H'ers about poverty, hunger and the underprivileged in Georgia.
2. To challenge 4-H'ers to think creatively about food and cooking by developing recipes using ingredients commonly found in Georgia Food Banks.
3. To educate 4-H'ers about the cost of food, and what it takes to feed a family.
4. To provide youth and families across Georgia with a "recipe bank" for inexpensive, nutritious meals.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. The contest has three categories for Cloverleaves, Juniors and Seniors. Please visit <http://www.georgia4h.org/public/more/facsprojectsissues/foodsdemo/Georgia%20Food%20Bank%20Association%204-H%20Recipe%20Contest%202015.docx> to download the contest details.
2. This is an invitation only finalist competition for the Senior Division. The top winners from each Regional Food Bank "Cook-Off" in the Senior Division will be invited to the state contest which will be held at the Georgia National Fair.
3. A 4-H'er who has been a previous winner or finalist in this contest may enter again, and is also eligible to win or place again, but must use a totally different recipe. Any recipes published in the 4-H Pantry Pride Cookbook from the previous year may not be entered in the contest again by that 4-H member or any other 4-H member. The cookbook may be downloaded at: <http://www.georgia4h.org/public/more/facsprojectsissues/foodsdemo/PantryPride.pdf>.
